Mr. C. L. Moore,
Congress Street,
Asheville, North Carolina.

Dear Friend:

The bearer of this letter is the boy I spoke to you about. The only way I could get Abe and Mackey to agree to let him go was by having you take him so they could get him back at a later date, if needed. They both believe he shows great promise, and do not want to sever ties with him.

Please let me know how he looks. Abe said he talked to Banks when he saw him in New York, and he was very happy with the Club. I was, of course, very glad to hear this.

Very truly yours,
